APR Composites are manufactured utilising recycled and reclaimed materials. They will not rot, rust, splinter or leach chemicals into the environment, therefore providing the perfect long-term, environmentally sound fencing solution.

APR Composites extensive range of profiles offer both visual appeal and durability and include round, square and rectangular shapes.

All APR Composites products are custom designed, engineered and manufactured in Australia to your specific needs, which means you get exactly what you need with no waste. They are also easy to install and require very little maintenance, if any at all.
